VJ Electronix Appoints Gabor Homolya as European Sales Manager

January 2012 — VJ Electronix, Inc., the leader in rework technologies and global provider of advanced X-ray inspection systems, is pleased to announce the appointment of Gabor Homolya as VJ Electronix European Sales Manager.

Mr. Homolya will be based out of VJ Electronix' new European sales office in Budapest, Hungary. Centrally located, the new Budapest office will host a variety of VJ Electronix demonstration equipment including the new SRT Micra rework system and the flagship Summit 1800 to support European sales and provide applications support to the company's European customers.

Gabor will report to Ron Lindell, VJ Electronix' Global Director of Sales, and will be responsible for managing all sales efforts within Europe and specific portions of the Middle East and Africa. Gabor brings significant experience as the former VJ Electronix Account Manager and Technical Specialist for EPS Hungary, a long time VJE distributor in Hungary, Romania, Czech Republic and Slovakia.
